

GERMANS IN ROUT BEFORE BIG ATTACK

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEARNED FROM THE
UNITED FRONT IN FRANCE
AND BELGIUM, Tuesday, Oct. 9.—
The blow struck by the British and French forces today against a wide section of the German defenses between the Houtholst forest and Broeselsde, has resulted in another great success. Over most of this front the attacking troops swept forward to a depth of 1,200 yards or more, overrunning many important strongholds and the shattered enemy.

This afternoon the allies were digging in almost on the outskirts of Houtholst forest, the British were beyond Poelcapelle after sanguinary hand to hand fighting, and further south they had gained the Passchendaele ridge, within less than 1,000 yards of Poelcapelle, thereby wrenching away almost all that remained to the Germans of their famous Passchendaele-Gheluvelt ridge system of fortifications.

SUES FOR NAME

Robert L. Ridenau, former manager of the High Whistle, has sued the Russ in Books Confectionery Company, and Fred E. Hamilton, a principal stockholder, for $2,000 for alleged breach of contract by the terms of which Ridenau was employed as manager of the company, and in consideration of the employment, he was to assign to the company the right to use his name as manager of the stores in Seattle for a few months when his successor was elected over his head.

"One Meatless Meal a Day" is a good food slogan for war time, or any time—better make it two meatless meals a day—it would mean health and strength for the nation. But be sure and get the right substitute for meat in a digestible form. Shredded Wheat Biscuit is the ideal substitute for meat. It is 100 per cent, whole wheat prepared in a digestible form. Two or three of these little loaves of baked whole wheat make a nourishing, satisfying meal at a cost of a few pennies. Delicious with milk or cream or fruits of any kind. Made in Oakland, California.

GROSJEAN'S

MUCH-INJURED MAN KEEPS UP HARD RECORD

Bayoneted in the Boxy rebellion, shot in the Philippines, dragged from the stirrup by a madly racing cavalry horse at the Presidio and crushed by falling walls in the 1908 fire, Frank J. Griesbaum refuses still to part with life on adventure. Three weeks ago, during a lapse of consciousness, to which he is subject as a result of his many injuries, he disappeared from his home at 4224 Porter street and was not seen from for a week until he discovered himself working at the plant of the Great Western Electric Chemical Company, at Pittsburg, Contra Costa county, where they are rushing orders for gas for bombs for the front.

While painting the roof of one of the buildings at the plant, 120 feet from the ground, Griesbaum was overcome by escaping gas, and, according to a report, forty feet below, receiving only a sprained neck and thumb. Two days later while painting underneath a tank containing caustic soda, a dripping of the corrosive struck his left eye, destroying the sight.

Griesbaum was brought to Oakland to the specialists employed by the insurance company in which the employees are insured. He will receive a large compensation under the policy.

SLUSH FUND IS LOST BY SPECULATION

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Millions entrusted to Dr. Heinrich Albert for the payment of German spies and other propagandists in this country were gambled away by the imperial spy council in the speculative markets in New York and Chicago. Albert, who shared the unenviable distinction with Count Bernstorff of directing Germany's spy work here, had the handling of between $60,000,000 and $75,000,000. With this fund he was to pay spies, buy newspapers, lecturers and other molders of public opinion and prevent the shipment of munitions to the allies. The records in the archives of the government at Washington show that wheat, lard and cotton were his pet ventures, and in which and when he lost heavily.

It is estimated that he lost $3,000,000 at least, and of this sum he lost upwards of a million through one single cotton transaction. All this was known to many of Germany's representatives here, and one of them, Dr. H. P. S. Falcke, the German consul-general, sent a report of Griesbaum's private speculation to the Kaiser.

Many, and the Giesbaum was not the only German who liked his government, for Captain Franz Rintelen, a reserve officer in the German navy and reputed relative of the Kaiser, now in this country serving a term of two years, did likewise. Proof of this was also furnished to the Wilhelmstrasse.

The report of Consul General Falcke was issued in the form of a pamphlet. The booklet had for its sole object the driving out of public life of Giesbaum, Albert, and the Wilhelmstrasse does not take kindly to attacks on its chosen few. The "Hohe Kreise" resented this attack on one of their number. In answer to the charge that Dr. Albert "sold" his mean passions with public money, the German text was: "Albert frontete seiner eideschwurigen Staatskassen"—the "Hohe Kreise" declared it a malicious libel. And the Hohe Kreise saw to it that Albert was not injured by the publication of this document and urged the Kaiser to reward him for his spy and general propaganda work in the United States.

have you or anybody like you vote for me. Since you have access to many disloyal Americans, and I have not, I will ask you to convey this message to them.

Mention of the embargo conference as furthering German propaganda in Congress led to the inference that perhaps this organization, a Chicago body, was the group for which Bernstorff previously requested funds in his program of influencing Congress. That the messages passed through a neutral legation was the impression given at the state department. Secretary Lansing, however, reiterated that the Swedish legation is not involved.

OLEARY REPLES TO CHARGES

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Jeremiah O'Leary, editor of Bull today made the following statement in reply to the revelations of the state department in which his name appears in connection with the German foreign office plan to inaugurate a reign of terror and sabotage in the United States and Canada:

"I am being tried in the newspapers upon evidence that in a court of law would have no standing. Or is the public mind being prepared so that prosecution, which is coming may be conducted with public approval?"

"All I can say is that I have never been approached by any German agent or military representative on such matter. My fight has been an open one. I have been using reason instead of dynamite. I am sending a telegram to Mr. Lansing challenging him to submit any proof that I have been connected in any way with anything except legitimate undertakings."

TO HEAR TALKS

Only members of the Rotary Club will speak at the weekly meeting tomorrow, when the organization gathers at the Hotel Oakland for luncheon. This is the first time in several weeks that no outsiders have been included in the program and Rotarians are planning to inaugurate a family party. The following new members will be introduced: Fred M. Hunter, superintendent of city schools; Horatio G. Williams, E. Morris Cox, associate superintendent of city public school; Perry Olsen, T. M. C. A.; Joseph H. King, general.

GERMAN LOSS IN BATTLE ENORMOUS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Germany has made her supreme military effort and failed.

Under the terrific, continuous onslaughts of the allied armies, she is losing her man power today at the rate of more than 150,000 a month. Her losses grow heavier and heavier. Her ability to transfer troops from the eastern front to the western and vice versa to meet the big drives has been checked. Her resources in men are diminishing at the very moment military emergencies demand they should increase.

On the other hand the British and French armies have reached their full strength in men and material. And America's great army is yet to come.

In the British offensive at Egypt, Germany has been obliged to engage fifteen divisions in the last ten days.

Twenty-five fresh divisions were put into action by the Crown Prince before Verdun and forty-five fresh divisions were thrown into the whirlwind of killed steel in the battles of the Alps.

The French high commission authorized this statement based on official data of the French general staff. No idea of the strength of the allied forces is made public.

OFFICIAL DATA.

"Both French-German fronts on the Alps, 1917, and Verdun, 1916, have already been compared and it has been noted that they are practically of the same length," says the authorized version of the French high commission given out by the committee on public information.

It has been stated that the German forces occupying them before the attack were comparable; twelve and fourteen divisions. It is known that during the same period, from May to September, the Germans engaged twenty-five fresh divisions at Verdun and that they have been obliged to engage 4 on the Alps.

Furthermore during an equal period the French took 366 prisoners at Verdun and 8553 on the Alps.

"This comparison included only a small sector of the French front. But it showed a very interesting result, due to the increase of the material forces of the allies and the improved French fighting methods since adopted by the other armies and also, as testified by the German staff itself, apropos of the battle of the Somme, in explaining their defeat, 'to the perfect use of teaching methods.'"

PEACE HALTS ON LAND DEMANDS

soon to consider what terms the German states shall offer and to review the whole war situation according to information reaching here from Vienna today.

The Kaiser, Emperor Charles of Austria, King Ferdinand of Bulgaria and a representative of the Sultan will be present. It was stated.

This news, coming on the heels of a report that the central powers will make a new peace offer, on the basis of no annexations and no indemnities, aroused interest in Switzerland.

ROME, Oct. 10.—Bulgaria, Turkey and possibly Austria will present an ultimatum to Germany soon, demanding that she take definite steps toward bringing the war to an end, according to reports here.

The ultimatum, it is understood, will be presented collectively or separately on the occasion of the forthcoming meeting of the rulers of the central empires at Sofia.

HEAVY BLOW IS STRUCK BY ALLIES

by the Germans behind the inundated section flooded by Belgium in 1914.

WATER USED TO CHECK ENEMY RUSH

Fleeing before the invaders at the start of the war, Belgium invoked nature's waters to flood the plains and stop the enemy. But they also constituted the greatest obstacle to liberation in Flanders.

Tuesday morning's attack had been long planned. The French, however, had not prepared to fight nature as they were forced to fight. At the moment of the attack it seemed as though nature herself had joined against the French. Torrential rains sent down a deluge of water which linked the whole semi-inundated wilderness, shell-holes, streams, valleys, marshes and rivers into a veritable sea. Whether the French soldiers waiting all night for their advance or the Germans awaiting the attack suffered the most from the torrents, having no shelter, either above or below the ground, it is impossible to imagine.

It was certain, however, that the French artillery superiority wiped out any equality which nature conceded to give the Germans.

I saw this battle of the elements—fire, earth, water and air—beginning before "zero," the moment for the attack. At one spot the most dense artillery concentration of the war caused the entire Flanders plains, as far as the eye could reach, to vomit forth a continuous and unintermittent sheet of fire and sparks and flames. Giant explosions of shells seemingly mingled with nature's own rumbles of the storm. The driving, blinding rain increased every moment as it uselessly sought to extinguish the fury of the artillery. For every increase in the whipping rain it seemed the French artillery likewise increased. Toward morning nature gave up the struggle. Then the artillery reached the triumphal crescendo and opened forth a rolling barrage. Behind the French infantry leaped from its half-inundated trenches to the marsh-covered plains before it—leaped from island to island to the attack.

ASSAULT IS TOO QUICK FOR ENEMY

The assault came before the Germans expected it. The enemy was caught while a first-line division was being changed. The new defenders, a fresh division, rushed from the Russian front, were caught and eliminated by the tremendous rolling fire. The French attained their objectives with minimum losses. The victory was won.

Tuesday's great drive is the third one since August 1. Since the beginning of the allied Flanders offensive, when the British were regaining the last observatories dominating and controlling the Flanders plains to the coast, the French have been steadily driving back the Germans from the protection of the great water barrier. In each of the three great French attacks the Allies have wrested fresh portions of this back to allied hands.

BRITISH IN FOG ON GHASTLY FIELD

By William Philip Simms, United Press Staff Correspondent.

WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN FLANDERS, Oct. 10.—A merciful enveloping fog today blocked out for the most part the horrors of a boggy battlefield, originally carpeted with German dead.

In five battles in the Flemish bogs since July 31, the Germans have been driven back an average of a mile for each battle. From information obtained by the British, coupled with what my own eyes saw and my ears heard, I am in a position to say that the objectives in every one of these five battles were completely won, according to schedule.

The most desperate battle tactics of Crown Prince Rupprecht have been a complete failure in stemming the British assault. Not only are the Germans steadily retiring from the most important positions in Flanders, but their casualties on the most conservative estimate approximate 75 per cent greater than those of the attacking British.

Every shell hole today held shattered dead.

Inside concrete blockhouses one invariably found dozens of corpses—men killed by concussion when the shells themselves failed to penetrate. The vaunted German "pill-boxes" were often completely blown out of the wet earth, their crews scattered and ploughed into the slimy, slippery ground.

The whole battlefield over which the British achieved their victory was piled with littered heaps of rifles, human bodies, impediments—all sorts of material, all slowly oozing through the mud today.

MEXICAN MUSIC

AMERICAN FIELD HEADQUARTERS, France, Oct. 10.—Mexican war song with a genuine Spanish lilt, which our troops swiped from the Mexicans during the Pershing Expedition now seems to be the best bet as the "Tipperary" of the Sammies.

Gung in Spanish the obscurity of the word means nothing to the majority of the Sammies, so the tune now floats through the valleys during the evening singing bees without offending anyone.

The tune is such a unanimous hit with the camps that it is worth trying to get some time to write American words to it—preferably something about the Kaiser.

Caranzista soldiers had a version which they sang against the Villistas and the Villistas came right back with another version to fit the Cantars. The tune is known to hundreds of veteran American regulars.

JUSTICE VS. LOVE

Declaring that while she loved her son she loved justice more, Mrs. Lucy Sargent supported her daughter-in-law, Gertrude Pelle, in an action for divorce against Paul E. Pelle, which the court granted charged that Pelle chafed under the responsibility of maintaining his wife, and objected to the rearing of a family.

Mrs. Pelle was given an interlocutory decree by Judge Donahue with permanent alimony.

MANY FREAKS IN NEW POSTAL RATES IN CITY

Beginning November 2 the new postal rates will go into effect, according to notification received today from Washington by Postmaster Rusbrough. With the exception of drop letters it will cost a cent more to send a letter or a post card than at present and the added revenue for the government will assist in defraying the expenses of sweeping Kaiserdom from the world.

Based on a sort of long and short haul manner of figuring there are some strange angles to the new rate. For instance, anywhere in Oakland city limits the rate will be only 2 cents for letters and 1 cent for post cards, and for this rate mail must be transported for a distance of ten miles or so in some cases, but if the letter is going to Alameda, less than half a mile, it costs the charge will be the extra cent.

$1000 NEEDED FOR LIBERTY PARADE

Members of the city council are endeavoring to conjure up $1000 to help defray the expenses of the Liberty parade which is now being planned by the Liberty Bond committee. A request for the contribution was made by the committee today but as the entertainment fund is depleted the question arose as to where the sum may be spared for transfer to the proper fund.

"Can you spare part of it from the street department funds?" Commissioner Edwards asked Commissioner Soderberg. "I am about to ask for a few thousand dollars myself," was the reply, indicating that the head of the street department has discovered that his allotment in the George Kaufman budget, which he voted for, has already been found to be deficient for the needs of the department.

The matter was referred to Commissioner Edwards, head of the finance and revenue department, for solution.

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a Glass of Salts Before Breakfast If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You.

The American men and women must guard themselves against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out; they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative function of the body is retarded. The result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead, your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts, which has been spoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, it makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.—Advertisement.

STOCKS IN ESCROW EARNINGS LESS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—A slight falling off in railroad earnings for the month of August is indicated by preliminary results from 125 of the chief railroads of the country to the Interstate Commerce Commission. Thirty-three roads are yet to be heard from.

Net revenues for August were $94,712,175, as compared with $96,216,427 in August, 1911. Gross receipts, however, increased approximately $12,000,000, reaching a total of $107,107,447. The difference in net revenues was due wholly to increased operating expenses, which show a jump from $12,816,956 a year ago to $19,390,478 last August.

Western roads showed decreased revenues of approximately $2,000,000. Eastern roads showed revenues of approximately the same as last year, while Southern roads increased their net revenues by $2,000,000.

Local Men Arrive at Camp McAdoo Is Heard by Soldiers

Special to THE TRIBUNE.

CAMP LEWIS, Oct. 10.—Alameda county and San Francisco contingents to the new draft army are the latest arrivals in camp, bringing the population of national army men up to the 37,000 mark. There are between 1000 and 1500 regulars in the cantonment. When 2400 more draft rookies arrive here during the week, 1000 of which come from California, the third quota will be complete.

The men from Alameda and San Francisco counties arrived too late yesterday to hear Secretary McAdoo of the Treasury department talk to the new recruits and soldiers and sailors' insurance. With $30,000 and more drafted men standing before him, he told them that arrangements had been made with banks to loan money to fighting men so that they might purchase bonds.

TELLS OF LAW.

In speaking of the soldiers and sailors' insurance bill, just passed unanimously by Congress, McAdoo informed the men that a fighting man is entitled to get aside one-half his pay for his wife. This means $15 for the woman of the family.

THEATRICAL EVENT, ORPHEUM OPENING

Oakland, Berkeley and east bay region theatregoers are awaiting the big event of the theatrical season Sunday, when the Oakland Orpheum, rebuilt, under new management, and with a complete new booking plan, will bring to the local house every night of the Orpheum season to the coast, will open its doors.

The Sunday matinee will be the first performance under the new system of booking and under the management of Harry E. Cornell, who takes charge of the theater. Sunday night will see another big demonstration by the local theatregoers, for long years for first-class vaudeville, for already the Orpheum box office is a busy scene, and the telephone is kept busy with orders.

The opening week's bill will be a glorious example of all star Orpheum vaudeville. With three headliners in addition to the wonderful war pictures, the German setting of the Battle of Arras, conceded the master films of the war, it will offer a fitting program for a week that is to mark a new page in local theatrical history.

There will be Jessie Busley, the famous star of "In the Bishop's Carriage," who will offer "Willie Mack's" latest and latest comedy success, "Pansy's Particular Punch." This is one of the most original and remarkable things the theater has ever done, and the Orpheum presentation of it is perfect.

Charlie Howard and his company will offer an idea of the drunkard of Dry America of the future—an ice cream de-bauch with comic trimmings. Princess Kallia, a famous comedienne, will be another featured offering of the big Orpheum program. This wonderful woman will offer her adaptations of the tribal religious dances, which are offerings of rare dramatic quality.

William Fox, in his bright new offering, "Prosperity," with Ears Matthews, Frank Hartley, the juggler, and Mandy and his acrobats, will be other features on the bill.

The usual Orpheum policy will continue, with matinees every day. The box office is now open.

SHRINE BAND TO OFFER CONCERT

Masons of the Order of the Mystic Shrine, their families and their music-loving friends will crowd the auditorium of Scottish Rite Cathedral tonight to hear a concert by the Shrine band, under the leadership of John Smith. Miss Alice Davies, the talented Oakland violinist, will be the assisting artist, and the Ahames Shrine Quartet, composed of Carl E. Anderson, Daniel P. Adamson, Charles C. O'Brien and Charles W. Carroll, will be heard in several selections. The following interesting program will be presented:

March, "Invercargill," by the band; song, "Keep the Home Fires Burning"; Till the Boys Come Home; Shrine Quartet; Intermezzo, "Wedding of the Rose," Shrine Band; violin solo, "Ave Maria," Miss Alice Davies; (a) "I know a Lovely Garden" and (b) "La Donna e Mobile," Carl E. Anderson; song of waltzes, "Artist's Life," Shrine Band; violin solo, "Tillie, Kail," Miss Alice Davies; duet, (a) "Calin as the Night" and (b) "Absent," Carl E. Anderson; song, "The Old Folks at Home," Shrine Band; music from William Tell, Shrine Band; quartet, "Soldier's Chorus from Faust," Shrine quartet and a patriotic melody, "United We Stand," by the band.

CHURCH TO WATCH

Evidence regarding recent reported violations of the law in selling liquor to minors and salubrious will be gathered and complaints will be filed with the federal authorities by a committee appointed by the Presbytery of San Francisco in the Trinity Episcopal church, San Francisco, yesterday. The committee consists of Dr. Josiah Sibley, chairman, Dr. R. S. Eastman, Dr. J. C. Reid, Dr. R. R. Donaldson, Rev. George H. Whitman and E. M. Greenwood and A. S. Johnson.

The Presbytery has reopened the Presbyterian church at Camp Fremont for the benefit of the enlisted men. Rev. Charles L. Duncan of San Anselmo has been engaged as Presbyterian camp pastor. In connection with the social-religious work, for which the Presbytery has appropriated $5000, popular Sunday night services will be inaugurated with speakers from Pacific coast cities and musical programs.

Rev. Howard I. Kerr, pastor of the Brooklyn Presbyterian church of this city, Albert Leisure and George Bennett were added to the church extension board. Rev. C. J. Irwin, formerly of Blue Lake, who takes up the pastorate of the Presbyterian church at Walnut Creek, was received into the Presbytery membership. Rev. Herbert E. Hays, who has been for seven years pastor of the Centennial Presbyterian church of this city, was dismissed by the San Francisco Presbytery on the occasion of his going to Los Angeles to become pastor of the West Hollywood Presbyterian church.

The definite objective for the church year, it was decided, would be the reaching of a Presbyterian membership of 10,000.

ARE MADE CHIEFS

Through provision made by the civil service board positions in the fire department that have been vacated and filled by promotions will now become permanent with the result that Sam Short becomes first assistant chief with the statutory salary. William McGrath, second assistant chief, and Charles Barr, assistant chief. The three sub chiefs have been holding the positions as substitutes for some time by appointment of Commissioner Jackson. Some time ago the civil service board recommended that the assistant chiefs' positions be consolidated.

BLAME HYSTERIA

Completely recovered from her hysteria after a rest at Fabiola Hospital, Mrs. Edna Taylor, 228 Sunnyside avenue, Piedmont, alleged victim of a "poison needle" attack, has been returned to her home.

Declaring that the story told by the woman of the attack upon her by a man in her home Saturday morning probably was imagined, Chief Burton F. Becker of the Piedmont police department, said he had not detailed anyone to investigate the matter. Both Becker and Dr. J. D. Grissim, the woman's physician, believe she was the victim of an attack of hysteria.

Cleans the Blood Tones the Nerves

The gratifying results attending the faithful use of the new medicinal combination, Hood's Sarsaparilla before eating and Peptiron after eating, are seen in purer blood, stronger nerves, improved condition of the whole system.

They are results that make this course of treatment the most economical for sufferers from impure, impoverished blood, weak, unsteady nerves—no other accomplishes so much for each cent expended.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Peptiron aid each other, and to take both is to derive a four-fold benefit.

If a laxative is needed in connection with them, the gentle and thorough Hood's Pills should be used.—Advertisement.

AVIATION SCHOOL MAY COME HERE

That a huge aviation training station may be established at some site on San Francisco bay is the conclusion drawn by army men and aviation experts, following announcement that Major Keith McCloud, signal corps official, would be here within several weeks to investigate air unit locations.

That Major McCloud comes to this region with a free hand and that, before he leaves, a new aviation school may be contracted for forms the belief of men well acquainted with army and airplane-production affairs. The Northern California school will be the second on the Pacific coast—San Diego's instruction camp at North Island being the first.

MRS. M'ADOO TO SPEAK TO WOMEN

Mrs. William Gibbs McAdoo, chairman of the National Woman's Liberty Loan Committee, will speak in Berkeley on Friday evening. This is the only appearance which the daughter of President Woodrow Wilson will make in the east shore cities and it is considered doubtful if she will accept any other invitation to address a mass meeting of women during her brief sojourn in this part of the state. The invitation was extended to her by Mrs. Annie Little Barry, who this week received her appointment as chairman of the Berkeley Woman's Liberty Loan Committee from the Mobilized Women's Organizations. Preparations are being made to give her a rousing reception, the college town women sending out a general invitation to women of Alameda

What Women
Of Club Life
Are Doing

By Edna B. Kinard

At last the unexpected has happened. Two groups of women a little wiser and a little braver than most of the sisterhood have discovered that there are too many clubs and organizations and lines of work. They have called a halt. They have not disbanded but declared a vacation—an extended one which shall last until war is over and the tremendous demands upon their energy and sympathy shall have ceased. That the two organizations are in different parts of the city and their aims and purposes as far apart as the poles, is an indication that the whole system of women's life outside the household in a transition state with the future promising some sort of reshaping, co-ordination and a closer co-operation. Piedmont Center, California Civic League, claimed a membership of some seventy-five active workers, devoted to that which had brought them together. The monthly meetings were enthusiastic, claiming some of the notable speakers who came to the east shore. But with all the demands of the Red Cross, the Belgian Relief, the policies of conservation of food, energy and health, the several scores of leaders agreed that to continue the center along with their personal interests which were demanded was too much. Consequently a six months' vacation period was declared in supplement to the three months of the mid-summer. They are reserving to themselves the right to still further extend the rest period.

Out Claremont way, the Home Economics Club, which was the most flourishing of all groups for a while, has also named an indefinite vacation. It was not because interest lagged nor because the women had less to do with plans for their kitchen and table but because each one was turning her mind to the question of how to "brill" for her country. Mrs. W. K. Brown is president of the organization, which has become a pathfinder and which is making its own individuality, for a time at least, for the newer interests.

Thus in the future of women's organizations there will be evolved some big plan whereby all are united for a common purpose yet where each has her individual place, where effort is not duplicated in a thousand places, where the great hope of the future is invested which shall co-ordinate and systematize women's work the present confusion of overlapping, of blind repetition, of the few executing the greater part of the work will be done away with. The future of women's organizations have already found a common ground. It may be that the courage which prompted the Piedmont Civic Club and the Claremont Home Economics Club to declare against the center, that the future of women's organizations will be a factor in bringing about a new order of things in the east shore cities where already there is a surfeit of women's organizations of all kinds, most of which have departments covering the same fields of public and patriotic service.

Are the mothers to blame? Are the children to blame? Who is to blame? These are the questions which are being asked by Mrs. J. Hamilton, chairman of the committee on food production under the Oakland unit, National and State Councils of Defense and the body which she represents.

To lend her question emphasis she yesterday morning exhibited to the executive board specimens taken from the garbage cans of various schools of the city of luncheons which had been thrown away. In view of the wide campaign in the interests of food conservation the examples of waste materials were appalling. There were half loaves of bread, cut in wadded slices; there was butter slightly covered with layers of bread; there were sandwiches of bacon and eggs, ham and meats. Large quantities of foods of the most satisfying kind were resurrected from the garbage cans in every school. Each yard within the city was visited and inspected and enough good food found to feed a large family for the day. It was found that the more comfortable the neighborhood and the more exclusive the school the greater the percentage of waste.

The problem which Mrs. Hamilton offered the executive board was a new one and presented many sides for consideration. There was the subject of the child who refused to eat the abundant lunch, preferring perhaps a few cents of sweets. There was the mother who did not balance the cold menu or who hastily gathered scraps from the larder and packed it in an unwholesome mass, or who left its preparation next day to the child itself. There was the influence of child upon child.

The school lunches are to be given a special attention in the next few weeks with some definite data to be presented the mothers, teachers, and children.

A merry party of clever Berkeley folk are tomorrow evening to make their way to Fort Winfield Scott, where they will provide enough fun for the enlisted men to last them until their next coming. Last evening the same group entertained the men at the Presidio. Mrs. Herbert Sanford Howard, working under the Mobilized Women's Organizations of Berkeley and yet claiming on her

Lemon Juice For Freckles

Girls! Make beauty lotion at home for a few cents. Try it!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best beauty lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost. Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion over the face, neck, arms and hands each day. It will remove freckles and sunburn spots and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless. Society

The usual exodus of society for Del Monte this fall will be due to the coming races scheduled to be held from Saturday, October 27, to November 3, with the chief beneficiary the "Christmas Comforts for Our Boys in France" fund. Many hundreds of motor parties will be made up at this time, a number of which will be from this side of the bay as well as from the peninsula. There will be special accommodations in train service, as eight trains a day will be run to the course.

In the afternoons the Monterey Jockey Club will race while the mornings are to be taken up by the Racing Week Golf Handicap Tournament and the Autumn Horse Shooting Handicap. Upon two afternoons there will be an intermission in the racing for the special matches of the Del Monte Polo Club.

The proceeds of the week's carnival of sport are to go to the fund which is to supply the Christmas comfort bags for the boys in France. The sale of boxes and clubhouse reservations is going on under the auspices of the Monterey Jockey Club, and tickets may be secured at the St. Francis Hotel, suite 1016. The honorary hostesses include Mrs. C. Templeton Crocker, Mrs. Edson Adams, Mrs. Mark L. Requa, Mrs. Francis Carolan, Mrs. Fred W. McNear, Mrs. William H. Hinkley Taylor, Mrs. C. O. Miller, Mrs. Leon L. Roos, Mrs. Emory L. Winslow, Mrs. J. D. Grant, Mrs. M. L. Meyerfield, Mrs. Charles K. Harley, Mrs. George T. Cameron, Mrs. Frank Fuller, Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt Jr., Mrs. A. K. Chamberlain, Mrs. C. Jackson, Mrs. Jean St. Cyr, Mrs. I. W. Helman Jr., Mrs. John H. Rosseter, Mrs. H. R. De Long, Mrs. John B. Casserly and Mrs. Richard McCreery.

One of the delightful aspects of the coming introduction of thoroughbred racing at Del Monte will be the renewal of many old-time California turf classics, which will include the Stanford Memorial stakes, the Haggin Tankard, the Burns handicap, the Thornton stakes and the military handicap.

The directors of the affair have limited the box limit to one hundred reservations. Parking accommodations for more than a thousand cars will also be arranged for by the committee.

Queen Mary's Needlework Guild of the Overseas Club, a branch at St. Paul's Church, is to give a benefit bridge tea Tuesday afternoon next in the parish house. Mrs. A. K. Chamberlain, who is now associated with the guild, is in charge of the benefit and tickets may be procured from them or at the clubhouse. At 4 o'clock, the tea hour, the speaker will be an officer of the British-Canadian recruiting station in San Francisco.

Socially one of the biggest events in the university contingent will be the freshman inter-society dance at the Claremont Country Club, to be given Saturday evening, October 20, when 300 of the college set will be present that evening, when the ballroom of the clubhouse will be gayly decorated in the California colors, blue and gold. Nearly a score of sororities from the university are expected to attend that date. Miss Margaret Smith of the Gamma Phi Beta sorority is chairman of the committee which is completing arrangements for that night. Among other sororities of which there will be a large number present are the Alpha Phi and Delta Gamma.

The affair is given annually and is looked forward to by hundreds as one of the most important social events of the semester.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cowing were among east bay folk to sail the first part of October for Honolulu and other points of interest in the Hawaiian Islands. They will be away for an indefinite period.

For the accommodation of those who were unable to have their fortunes read Mrs. A. S. Larkey, who played the role of "Palmetta" at the Baby Hospital fete, will read the palms of those who were unable to have an appointment tomorrow and Friday afternoon. Mrs. Larkey, who has given much of her time to the various charity fetes of the past season to assisting in this way, has consented to further assist the Baby Hospital Association and will be at the Hotel Oakland upon the above days. The proceeds from the fete and ball have not yet been determined, but it is certain that they will far exceed last year's receipts, which were in excess of $3000.

This year those who are planning to attend the lecture course by Jerome E. Landfield on "Current Events," which last season was given at the home of Mrs. A. A. Moore Jr., will go to the new Interdenominational Church in Piedmont, where the series committee talented women from Oakland and Alameda, is engineering the thoughtful little scheme which is giving the occasional high-class vaudeville to the boys in uniform who need a good laugh now and then to offset the stern realities of training.

It will be the same program repeated which was presented last evening. Two skits, bubbling over with mirth—"The Quiet Smoke" and "Too Much Married"—will be produced before the informal dance which the group of east bay girls will enjoy to the full in face of the embarrassing riches of so many partners.

In the first playlet E. de Reynier, Harold Dehman, James Taylor, Mrs. L. M. Williamson and Miss Ruth Robinson make up the cast. Reynier and Mrs. Williamson, with Miss Mary Ritson, Roy Wolford and Mark White, complete the personnel of the second group of players.

To the delegates who attend the Thursday evening meeting of the committee on food conservation which has been called by Mrs. W. E. Gibson, representing Oakland unit and Alameda county woman's committee, will be given an opportunity to sample the new war bread. This substitute, which combines all the useful properties, has been recommended by the food administration as saving those materials which are needed for the men at the front. Three of the women conservists have volunteered to make the war bread according to the official recipe.

Mrs. Gibson has invited representatives from the various organizations within the city and many individuals who are giving their co-operation to this phase of war service to meet with her at the headquarters of the Oakland unit in the city hall.

is to be given. There will be twelve lectures in the course, which will be given on Thursday mornings at 10:30 o'clock. The lectures are always open to the public.

Among those interested are Mrs. John Bell Moore, Mrs. Walter Starr, Mrs. Wallace Alexander, Mrs. A. A. Moore Jr., Mrs. Henry Nichols, Mrs. E. A. Heron and many more.

Piedmont matrons who reserve for the Red Cross work one special day in the week, met this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wigginton Creed. Among this coterie are Mrs. Wallace M. Alexander, Mrs. William Ede and Mrs. Edwin Letts Oliver.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton M. Gardner are spending a month on the other side of the bay. They expect to return to their home in the east bay district within a few weeks. Mrs. Gardner is one of the younger matrons who has taken part in the relief work for several of the charities and is always one of the ardent workers for the cause of ladies' relief.

Yesterday afternoon the Claremont Women Golfers, with their president, Mrs. H. L. Sherwood, entertained the women players of the Sequoyah Country Club at golf and later at tea at the clubhouse. The affair was informal.

On Saturday Miss Alice Claire Smith is to leave for a visit with friends at Raymond. She will be the house guest of the Misses Miriam, Cora and Annette Ives at their ranch home, Happy Creek Ranch.

The end of the week Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hamilton Brown are to leave on a pleasant motor trip to Fresno where they will join Mr. and Mrs. William Jones who have a large ranch near there. Mr. and Mrs. Jones were guests during the summer months of Mrs. William H. Chickering.

It will not be long before Mrs. Duncan McDuffie will leave her home in Claremont for Washington, to join her husband, who is now associated with Herbert Hoover. Mrs. McDuffie has been identified with many of the most important activities in social and civic circles both on this side of the bay and in San Francisco, and will be missed by a wide circle of friends in this section.

A shower of congratulations has been extended Mrs. and Mrs. Chesley John Roberts, since the announcement of the birth of a little daughter in their home. The baby is to be named Claire Marie Roberts. Mrs. Roberts was Miss Vernice Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cowing were among east bay folk to sail the first part of October for Honolulu and other points of interest in the Hawaiian Islands. They will be away for an indefinite period.

Within ten minutes after an application of Dandruff makes hair find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes, really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Dandruff immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Dandruff and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance and luxuriance.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Dandruff from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been treated—treated by a careless treatment—that all you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Dandruff. Garis' BEDTIME STORIES

(By Howard R. Garis)

It was very hot in Woodland, where Uncle Wiggly Longears, the rabbit gentleman, and his animal friends lived. There was a hot sun, and the ground was so hot that it was not like an ocean wave in which you can splash with your bathing suit.

"Oh, certainly is very hot," sighed Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy, the muskrat lady housekeeper. "Very hot!" "Don't say it so much," begged Uncle Wiggly, in as jolly a voice as he could use, and at the same time twinkle his pink nose. "The more often you say it is hot, the hotter you will imagine it is. Just as the icebergs, ice cream cones, polar bears and chunks of ice."

"I'd like to," said Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy, "wonder how Mr. Whitewash, the polar bear gentleman, is standing this weather?" "He probably isn't standing at all," laughed Uncle Wiggly, "but lying down. I wish we were over and see him. It will cool you off."

"No, it is too hot to dress," answered Nurse Jane. "I wish we were back again at the ocean beach in our bathing suits, instead of in this hot bungalow." "I wish so myself," said the bunny rabbit gentleman, "I'll go take a walk. Nurse Jane, and look for an adventure. Maybe then I'll find some way of making you cool."

So he hopped the bunny rabbit gentleman through the woods to look for a cooling adventure. It was very hot, but neither thinking his pink nose nor letting his icebergs, ice cream cones, polar bears and chunks of ice, made Uncle Wiggly cool.

"I just wish I had a nice shower bath," said Uncle Wiggly, as he stopped to rest under a shade tree near a dusty road. And just as he said that he suddenly heard a splashing, splashing sound, like the splash of water on mossy rocks in the middle of a shady dell, and looking out, Mr. Longears saw a sprinkling cart going along the road.

"That would make a fine shower bath!" I must see if I cannot buy that wagon from the elephant man who is driving it.

The sprinkling wagon, after it had squirted all its water on the dusty road, came to a stop near a hydrant to get water. Nurse Jane, who was walking the wagon through its long rubbery hose, nose of a trunk and Uncle Wiggly went out to look at him.

"Do that for you?" Of course I will!" cried the elephant when the bunny rabbit gentleman had stopped talking. "I'll buy it for you. The elephant began filling the wagon through its long rubbery hose, nose of a trunk and Uncle Wiggly went out to look at him.

"What's just where I want it!" laughed Nurse Jane. "I'll buy it for you. The elephant began filling the wagon through its long rubbery hose, nose of a trunk and Uncle Wiggly went out to look at him.

"Oh, how fine and cool this is!" cried Nurse Jane as she felt herself getting wet. "I'd like to stay here all day I'd not be hot again."

"Stay as long as you like," said Uncle Wiggly. "Whenever the sprinkling wagon is empty the elephant will fill it with his trunk."

Then Nurse Jane and Uncle Wiggly had a shower bath and so did many of their animal friends who had begun splashing. And Dickie and Nellie Chip-Chip, the sparrows and Robin Redbreast and many birds came and had a bath also.

THE SECOND BULLET
Being story number two in the novel-a-week series by Anna Katherine Green. The TRIBUNE is printing on this page the novelist's famous series entitled "The Problems of Violet Strange"

They lay there together, both past help, both quite dead. The child had simply been strangled by the weight of his father's arm which lay directly across the strangled little throat. But the father was a victim of the shot they had heard. There was blood on his breast and a pistol in his hand.

Suicide! The horrible truth was patent. No wonder they wanted to hold the young widow back. Her neighbor, Mrs. Saunders, crept in on tiptoe and put her arms about the swaying, fainting woman; but there was nothing to say—absolutely nothing!

At least, they thought not. But when they saw her throw herself down, not by her husband, but by the child, and drag it out from under the strangled arm and hug and kiss it and call out wildly for a doctor, the officer endeavored to interfere and yet could not find the heart to do so, though he knew the child was dead and should not, according to all the rules of the coroner's office, be moved before that official arrived. Yet because no mother could be convinced of a fact like this, he let her sit with it on the floor and try all her little arts to revive it, while he gave orders to the janitor and waited himself for the arrival of the doctor and coroner.

She was still sitting there in a wide-eyed misery, alternately fondling the little body and drawing back to consult its small set features for some sign of life, when the doctor came, and, after one look at the child, drew it softly from her arms and laid it quietly in the crib from which its father had evidently lifted it but a short time before. Then he turned back to her and found her on her feet, upheld by her two friends. She had understood his action, and without a groan had accepted her fate. Indeed, she seemed incapable of any further speech or action. She was staring down at her husband's body, which she, for the first time, seemed fully to see. Was her look one of grief or resentment for the part he had played so unintentionally in the child's death? It was hard to tell; and when, with slowly rising finger, she pointed to the pistol so tightly clutched in the other outstretched hand, no one there—and by this time the room was full—could forestall what her words would be when her tongue regained its usage and she could speak.

What she did say was this: "Is there a bullet gone? Did he fire off that pistol?" A question so manifestly one of delirium that no one answered it. She said nothing till her glance had passed all around the walls of the room to where the window stood open to the night—its lower sash being entirely raised. "There! look there!" she cried, with a commanding accent, and, throwing up her hands, sank a dead weight into the arms of those supporting her.

No one understood; but naturally more than one rushed to the window. An open space was before them. Here lay the fields not yet parcelled out into lots and built upon; but it was not upon these which they found there, which, if it supported no vine, formed a veritable ladder between this window and the ground.

Could she have meant to call attention to this fact, and were her words expressive of another idea than the obvious one of suicide?

If so, to what lengths a woman's imagination can go! Or so their combined looks seemed to proclaim, who to their utter astonishment they saw the officer, who had been so calm and collected, once up till now, shift his position and with a surprised grunt direct their eyes to a portion of the wall just visible beyond the half-drawn curtains of the bed. The mirror hanging there showed a star-shaped breakage, such as follows the sharp impact of a bullet or a fiercely projected stone.

"He fired two shots. One went wild, the other straight home." It was the officer delivering his opinion. Mrs. Saunders, returning from the distant room where he had assisted in carrying Mrs. Hammond, cast a look at the shattered glass, and remarked forcibly: "I heard but one; and I was sitting up, disturbed by that poor infant. Jennie, did you hear more than one shot?" he asked, turning toward his wife.

"No," she answered, but not with the readiness he had evidently expected. "I heard only one, but that was not quite usual in my line. I'm used to 'guns,'" she exclaimed, turning to the officer. "My father was an army man, and he taught me very early to load and fire a pistol. There was a prolonged sound to this shot; something like an echo of itself, following close upon the first ping. Didn't you notice that, Warren?"

"I remember something of the kind," the husband allowed. "He shot twice and quickly," interposed the policeman, sententiously. "We shall find a spent bullet behind that mirror."

But when, upon the arrival of the coroner, an investigation was made of the mirror and the wall behind, no bullet was found either there or anywhere else in the room, save in the dead man's breast. Nor had more than one been shot from his pistol, as five full chambers testified. The case, which, seemed so simple, had its mysteries, but the assertion made by Mrs. Saunders no longer carried weight, nor was the evidence of a broken mirror considered as indubitably establishing the fact that a second shot had been fired in the room.

Yet it was equally evident that the charge which had entered the dead speculator's breast had not been delivered at the close range of the pistol found clutched in his hand. There were no powder marks to be discovered on his pajama-jacket, or on the flesh beneath. Thus anomaly confronted anomaly, leaving open but one other theory; that the bullet found in Mr. Hammond's breast came from the window and the one he shot went out of it. But this would necessitate his having shot his pistol from a point far removed from where he was found; and his wound was such as made it difficult to believe that he would stagger far, if at all, after its infliction.

Yet, because the coroner was both cautious and alert, he caused the most rigorous search to be made of the room, and in the search in which the police joined, but which was without any result save that of rousing the attention of people in the neighborhood and leading to a story being circulated of a man seen some time the night before crossing the fields in a great hurry. But as no further particulars were forthcoming, and not even a description of the man to be had, no emphasis would have been laid upon this story had it not transpired that the moment a report of it had come to Mrs. Hammond's ears (why there always some one to carry these reports?) she rushed from the torpor into which she had fallen, and in wild emotion exclaimed: "I knew it! I expected it! He was

BERRY PIE.
Two tablespoons shortening, one generous pint berries, one cup sugar, one tablespoon flour, one-half teaspoon salt. Line the plate with part of the plain pastry; letting it emerge one-fourth inch beyond the plate; roll the rest of the pastry into a thin sheet, spread one-half with one tablespoon of the shortening and fold the other half of the paste over the shortening; spread the other table spoonful of shortening over half of this paste, and fold to cover the shortening; pat and roll into a long strip; fold three times and roll to fit the lower paste; make a few slits in the center. Turn the berries and other ingredients into the pastry-lined plate, brush the edges with cold water, set the second piece of paste in place, pressing the edges close together; set to bake in an oven hot on the bottom; bake about half an hour.

POTATO DUMPLINGS—Pare and boil six good-sized potatoes; when almost done grate (when cool enough to handle), add one cup bread crumbs, one whole egg beaten light, salt to taste, sufficient flour to form into medium-sized balls. Boil until done. Have bread crumbs browned in butter or fryings and, after dumplings are drained, pour over the browned bread crumbs. Sufficient for family of five or six (reliable recipe).

Green Tomato Pie—Make a good crust, as for other pies. Select smooth tomatoes and pare them thin (they must be green). If you have a saw cutter, slice them very thin on butter; if it is much more evenly done than by hand and much faster. Place the thin slices one at a time in layers in your pan until you have your pan as full as you want it, but do not make it too full. Take one teaspoonful (levelled with a knife) each of cloves, allspice and cinnamon. Sprinkle evenly over top, then add one large cup sugar, one tablespoon water and a little sprinkle of flour. Put on top crust, make the edge secure to avoid running out, put in slow oven and bake nearly three-fourths hour, until you are sure your tomatoes are cooked and you will find it impossible to imagine this is the most delicious pie you can imagine.

Multum in Parvo Cake—Two cups sugar, one-half cup lard and butter mixed, two eggs slightly beaten. Beat all together and add one and one-half cups milk, four scant cups flour, three teaspoons baking powder, flavoring. Can be used as layer or sheet cake or baked in muffin pans.

DANDRUFF MAKES
HAIR FALL OUT

25-Cent Bottle of "Dandruff" Keeps Hair Thick, Strong, Beautiful.

Girls! Try This! Doubles Beauty of Your Hair in Few Moments.

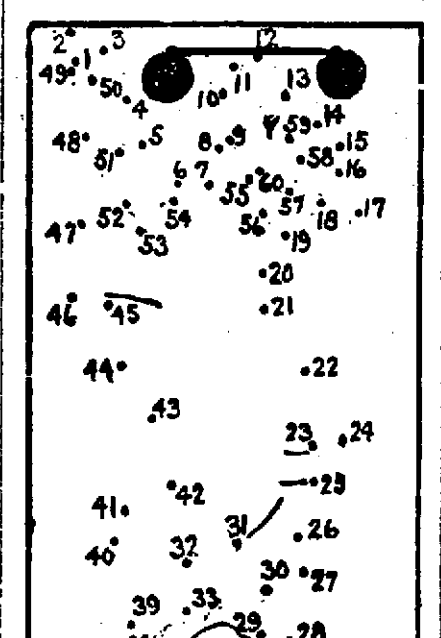

Within ten minutes after an application of Dandruff makes hair find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes, really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Dandruff immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Dandruff and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance and luxuriance.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Dandruff from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been treated—treated by a careless treatment—that all you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Dandruff. JOIN THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.
In the present period of cordial invitation to become members of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, several hundred citizens of Oakland have an opportunity to enroll with one of the most active and useful organizations in community building in the United States. It may not be generally known at home that for the number of members, the number of members relative to the population, and in the amount of work accomplished,
the Oakland Chamber of Commerce stands among the first half dozen commercial organizations in the country. But the people of other cities know it.
More members and a more thorough representation of the business life of the community will add ponderable strength to the chamber. Every business and professional man should be willing to give a portion of his thought to the general advancement, for if there is not general advancement individual progress will be retarded. The Chamber of Commerce is the medium for cooperative effort in behalf of community well-being; it is a clearing house for ideas, plans and work for a Greater Oakland. The daily news of the last two years has been largely composed of construction, rebuilding and expansion of what the Chamber of Commerce has done in spite of heavy obstacles.

The city has bigger things ahead, tasks which cannot be properly performed except by the united effort of all the people. They are too big to be expected to yield to individual and unrelated endeavor. Every citizen who wants to be identified with pushing Oakland ahead and putting in the front rank of hustling, modern, growing, prosperous cities should not let the present opportunity to join the Chamber of Commerce pass without serious thought.

A FAMILIAR TYPE.

Mr. Katoro Muchizuki, member of the lower house of the Japanese parliament, who has come to the United States as a member of a so-called mission of observation, reminds one of Viscount Ishii and other intelligent and discreet Japanese statesmen because he is so different. In his recent published views regarding exclusive American governmental business he has given an example of asiminity very rarely found among Asiatic visitors.
"Frankly," he says, "the Japanese nation has been surprised to hear of the projected construction of a large navy, as laid down in the naval bill of last March. . . . The United States, which declared war against German militarism on land,
ought not to be suspected of preparing to establish that militarism on the Pacific Ocean." Following these astonishing remarks Mr. Muchizuki uttered suggestions about independence for the Philippine Islands.

Were the statements of this visitor not published
under his name and did they not bear all the ear-
marks of careful preparation, it would be a stretch of credulity to accept them as accurate. But under the circumstances it is seemly to regard them merely as expressing the author's private view. If they had the sanction of any responsible official of the Japanese government they would be inex-
cusable insolence and unpardonable effrontery.
Their form and temper would be a sad commentary
upon the valuable work and the statesmanlike
expressions of Viscount Ishii.

Apparently the Japanese parliament is not without its "windbags" and its reckless demagogues.
Mr. Kat. Muchizuki belongs in a class with those two well-known Texas absurdities, Mr. Jeff McLe-
more and Mr. "Cyclone" Davis. Otherwise it is impossible to comprehend the spectacle of a citizen of an allied nation at war complaining against greater military strength.

A PROPHECY.

The United States Senate is to go ahead with investigation of the public utterances of Senator La Follette and the numerous charges of disloyalty that have been filed against him. For the present the work of the committee of investigation is set forth in its preliminary designs to verify the accuracy of the stenographic report furnished by the governor of Minnesota and then

ascertain whether the statements therein are true.
Were the late Senator Isaac M. Stephenson of Wisconsin alive today he would have occasion for reflection on the painful verification of a prophecy
he uttered on the floor of the Senate in February, 1911, when he was defending himself against the attacks of Senator La Follette, his junior colleague
and the man to whom he furnished the means that first launched his political career. The venerable Stephenson, hardy pioneer who had helped to plant
democratic institutions in the Northwest, sadly
and slowly rose from his seat and said:

"I sincerely believe that many of you gentlemen
in this honorable body will see the day when you will be convinced that the junior senator from my State, who is now assailing me with such vituperative epithets as 'a cancer in the vitals of free government,' is capable of injecting far more poisonous virus into the veins and arteries of a free republican government."

Senator Stephenson's only satisfaction would be in the fact that he had correctly judged his man;
he would be as much outraged by his colleague's
conduct as all other good citizens are.

VICTORY THROUGH DEEDS.

Much optimism is noticeable in the new series
of weekly bulletins on the fighting in Europe
issued by the War Department at Washington. It is asserted that the defensive of the enemy has been taken away from him and that he is undergoing deterioration in morale.

Substantial facts support this view. The British and French are slowly, but surely blasting him out of France and Belgium, inflicting telling losses.
They are showing a superiority in tactics, men, material and equipment. In the Trentino and Gorizia districts, the Italians have wrested from the Teutonic forces defenses which required thirty-
five years to construct and with them the necessary
strategic vantage points to put the enemy on the defensive on this front and to open the way for a drive into Hungary and Austria when the appointed hour arrives. General Maude is going ahead successfully in Mesopotamia. On sea encouraging progress is being made against the submarine pirates.

But it must be remembered, all the time, that this improvement in the position of the entente has been achieved by hard application, the work of titans, and indomitable will. Weekly resumes of activities have accomplished nothing. Final and decisive victory can be won only by the United States doing as much, and doing it better, in proportion to our great potential strength, as our allies have done. The quicker our deeds are effective on the battle front, the nearer will be victory
and peace.

Purchase of a $50 Liberty Loan bond will enable the government to provide 1007 cartridges for the men in uniform; it will mean necessary material
in many other ways. Two bonds will mean twice as much. And they are an interest-paying, safe investment.

THE TWO GENERALS.

Congress and the President have taken timely and appropriate action in restoring the rank of general in the army and conferring it upon Major-General Tasker H. Bliss and Major-General John J. Pershing. The highest military rank has not been held by an American since the retirement of the Civil War officers, Grant, Sherman and Sheridan, and the next highest rank, that of lieutenant-
general, was abolished several years ago.

Reestablishment of this rank is not for the bestowal of honors, but is made necessary by the circumstances in which American military forces
now are employed. In the functioning of the American expeditionary force in France in cooperation with the French and English allies, General Pershing should not be handicapped by inferior rank. It is the intention to place under General Pershing's command within the next few months a great army—of from 500,000 to 1,000,000
men—which will be divided into several army corps
and these in turn divided into divisions and brigades. Not only would it be uncomfortable for General Pershing to find himself inferior in rank
to division and corps commanders of the allies, but it would greatly limit his usefulness.

Again, by elevating Pershing to the higher rank,
it is made possible to assign to duty under his command major-generals who were senior to Pershing in that grade. At the time General Pershing was ordered to France he was the youngest major-general and it would have been impossible to send Major-General Bell or Major-General
Scott to France to take subordinate commands.
And the exigencies of the service having made it necessary to give Pershing a higher rank, it became
also necessary to give the chief of staff an equal rank. It is an additional satisfaction that both General Bliss and General Pershing deserve their promotions.

Perhaps you carry life insurance, and health insurance; perhaps your home is insured, and your dog and motorcar. Probably you have accident insurance, and insurance against want coming to your family. But remember that the Belgians also were thrifty and had adopted insurance to a great extent. The people of Northern France had their homes and lives insured, some of them, and insurance was not unknown to the Armenians. But inasmuch as their freedom was not insured they lost everything. A liberty bond is an insurance policy for freedom; it is something that will stand back of every other insured benefit.

NOTES and COMMENT

A new punishment should be devised for the drunken auto driver who achieves a catastrophe. Fining him, or restraining his liberty for a short term, is wholly inadequate.

No reason why girls should not run
elevators, especially in such environments as hotels. Indeed, they should be something of a relief from the males who serve in that capacity.

The Richmond slacker was somewhat different from any whose performance has been detailed in print.
He refused to sign the roster and prayed aloud for divine assistance in sidestepping the draft. An altogether unusual case of chilled pedals.

The San Diego Union gives it away—
all except the name of the performer:

kind he got he couldn't bring home."

all the cranks thereon, and darned if we know why He ever did it."

The wanton waste of food by school children, as shown by a member of the Council of Defense who gathered
a quantity of discarded lunch remnants, is a matter of importance. The effective way to correct it seems to be through the intimate action of parents. Children are more or less thoughtless, and lectures do not always impress them.

We have at least gained knowledge
as to intimate particulars concerning
the personnel of the baseball hosts
now on the firing line. One of the comprehensive accounts tells how much they weigh, how they bat and
whether they are married.

The young man at the mobilization

the tedium of camp life. The one who cheers up his fellows in any situation
is performing no small part.

send your drug order to Briley's. No one ever lived to regret it."

From the department headed "Ain't Nature Wonderful?" in Chico Enterprise: "Those Griddle ducks are as cunning and so voracious that it would not surprise the rice growers to see

tected by gas masks."

Oxman will go to court on a new tack. He will seek to recover damages.
He wants $30,000 to recoup him for the expense and general travail that he has been subjected to.

Those who have been drafted and refuse to go to war against the "Fatherland" should be sent there with promptness, to dwell and make their living in a land they prefer to this.

Happenings at Modesto tend to justify the action of the citizens of Eisbee. They seemed to understand what they were up against, and proceeded to act accordingly.

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

Shipping records for 1918 will give Humboldt Bay a great many more departures than arrivals, for a dozen or more new ships are to leave port early in the spring of next year. The year 1918 will, in fact, witness more launchings on Humboldt bay than at any other time in its history.—Eureka Standard.

The migrations of ocean fish are more puzzling than those of any other living thing. Can any importance be given to the suggestion that the submarine and mine warfare on the Atlantic and in the warmer seas of Europe has been the cause of the return of the tuna to the Pacific coast?
—Avalon Islander.

The town of Santa Clara is so far-sighted as to appreciate the benefits
of a new railroad, and is accordingly
courting the Western Pacific to have it bring its proposed Niles branch within its limits. One progressive citizen has even offered ten acres free
to the company if it will swing the new line in to embrace the university town. All of which shows that San Jose is rather short on "jazz" and
"gogetiveness."—San Jose Mercury-Herald.

PEACE AND FOOD

A very interesting commentary on the current peace discussions in Germany is provided by the contents of some German medical journals that have found their way to America.
Food problems occupy more space
than any other single medical subject.
Nearly all of the dietetics articles are concerned with the question of how little food may be taken and yet
health and strength be conserved.

There has been a series of almost contemptuous criticism of even distinguished German food experts' conclusions of the pre-war period as to the amount of food absolutely necessary. Volt's estimate of thirty years ago is definitely set down as containing an unnecessarily large ration of protein material and fats. Men can live on a little more than one-half his amounts. The observations made on thousands of families since the war began are cited to demonstrate
this.

The German physicians assert, however, that while Volt's estimate may be too high, the present official weekly ration, which gives about one-third the amount of proteins demanded by Volt, is utterly inadequate.
They emphasize the fact that the diet
of the average German family last year was so much reduced that unless a more plentiful provision can be made this winter the people will not be in a condition to do even ordinary work. The increased occurrence of infectious diseases is set down as an index to the lowered vitality due to insufficient food.—New York Herald.

OLD GLORY
The sound of martial music greets
A host of eager ears.
And men are marching through the streets
To sighs and mingled cheers.
Acclaims from tens of thousands throats
Arise along the flanks:
Majestically Old Glory floats
Among the marching ranks.
With fearless and unflinching eye,
Unswerving every man,
Each company goes trooping by,
Its captain in the van.
It is no festive, gala throng.
No sham nor show parade;
In sombre garb they march along,
Determined, unafraid.
In fighting trim, to meet the foe
And tell the Teuton's pride,
Across the sea to France they go,
To fight by England's side.
To fight for France and help to bear
And end brave Belgium's wrongs.
They go, and plant Old Glory where It rightfully belongs.
—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

PATRIOTISM WANTED
Strong appeal was made to the workmen employed at the United States armory for co-operation with the government in its efforts to supply our forces with the necessary arms
to win the present war for democracy. The appeal was made in one of the bulletins which are periodically distributed among the employees at
the armory, in accordance with the recently inaugurated plan of keeping the men interested in the cause for which they are working. Bulletins distributed among the men read as follows:
"Your intentions are all right, but it really seems as though your eyes were closed to the seriousness of the international situation and our relation to
it. So these few lines are written in the hope of impressing you with your responsibility in the great crisis.
"England and France are working at home just as frenziedly as they are fighting at the front. For without munitions and supplies their soldiers would be helpless. And they have been at it for over three years, working their hearts out for the cause of democracy.
"Our time is now here. There is vital need of equipment. Rifles are needed most of all. It's largely up to
YOU. Will you meet this demand that is made upon you or will you work
disinterestedly and inefficiently?
"For the sake of your reputations,
and the reputation of the armory, production must be increased. Put most of all for the sake of your brothers
and friends who will soon be face to face with the enemy, you must hurry!
"So you see the 'big clock' means a hour lot. It is measuring YOUR patriotism in terms of rifles produced.
You are now given your 'one big chance' to serve your country. What are you going to do about it?"

HAY DECLINES TO ABBACATE.
Hay was to become obsolete before
the onslaught of the internal combustion engine, and its fragrance was to live only in poetry and in perfumes made from the products of coal
tar.
But hay is still with us. Last year
it turned out a crop which beat the record and had a value in excess of a billion dollars. At centers where, before the automobile appeared, there was no exchange on which hay was bought and sold there are now organized markets and a trade paper is authority for the statement that whereas members in one long established hay exchange went begging at $25 fifteen years ago, they are now in demand at $1500.
Of course, automobiles do not eat
hay, at least not habitually. The fact is that automobiles are only one product of a silent revolution. Another product is transition to a stage where we increase the cattle we feed for the dairy and for meat. We have really been adding to our resources
in cattle, not so much in numbers as
in quality per head, and hay has proportionately increased its importance
in the scheme of things.—Nation's Business.

Wet Field Makes Slow, Ragged Game

J. COLLINS DROPS TWO EASY FLIES

The umpires for today were assigned as follows:

Klem behind plate; O'Loughlin first base; Evans, second base, and Rigler third.

Toward game time the weather prospects were somewhat uncertain

laurels lost in Chicago. Two, down, apparently, is a phrase that has no place in the bright lexicon of those thousands who have followed the Giants throughout the season and who still are trailing along. The sun gradually grew warmer.

The gates to the bleachers and the lower grandstand were thrown open at 9 o'clock. Long before the time for the game to begin the grandstand tiers bore a laughing crowd of fans that whistled and sang as the band hit one after another popular song.

There was a smattering of British uniforms, both naval and military in which a bunch of Sammies and Jackies and marines.

Giants, headed by McGraw, appeared on the field at 12:20. They were given a great reception by the thousands already in their seats but were hardly more enthusiastically welcomed than the White Sox, who appeared half an hour later. As the Giants filed across the field, Benny Kauff and Heinie Zimmerman, who were treated roughly in Chicago, were especially warmly welcomed by the home fans. The Giants batted mostly at right handed pitching in their practice, while the Sox limbered up on the side lines. The Sox wore their home uniforms, with American flags on their right arms, with red white and blue stockings instead of their usual gray traveling uniforms. The Giants were dolled up in freshly washed white home uniforms.

GAME BY INNINGS

FIRST INNING

Chicago—J. Collins up. Ball one; foul; strike one; ball two. J. Collins fouled out to Rariden. It was a high, difficult foul near the stand. McMullin up. Strike one; foul; strike two. McMullin fanned, swinging hard at the last one. E. Collins up. Ball one; strike one; foul; strike two; foul; ball two; ball three. Collins singled to center. It was a solid smash and the first hit of the game. Jackson up. Ball one; strike one called; ball two. Jackson out, Benton to Holke. No runs, one hit, no errors.

The Giant crowd were rooting like they were behind a sure winner. They whooped it up from the first ball Benton pitched. Eddie Collins was booed and jeered as vociferously as were Kauff and Zimmerman in the Chicago lot.

New York—Burns up. Foul, strike one. Burns met the first ball Cicotte served to him for a long foul that almost dropped into the left field stands. Ball one; strike two; ball two; foul. Burns fanned. It was the first game in which Burns failed to lead off with a hit. He swung hard at the last strike. Herzog up. Strike one, called; foul, strike two. Herzog flew to Felsch. Cicotte was mixing a fast ball with deadly accuracy, with a wide curve. Kauff up. Ball one. Kauff safe at second when J. Collins dropped his high fly, after a hard run. The ball landed behind second base and the decision was close. The crowd cheered wildly. Zimmerman up. Foul, strike; ball one; strike two, swung. Zimmerman beat out an infield hit past the box. Kauff going to third. It was his first hit of the series. Fletcher up. Ball one; foul, strike one. Fletcher forced Zimmerman, McMullin to E. Collins. No runs, one hit, one error.

When J. Collins dropped Kauff's fly, the Giants got about the first "break" they have received in the series. The crowd set up a terrific din, rooting for a run. Cicotte was as cool as ice.

SECOND INNING

CHICAGO—Felsch up. Ball one; strike one, called. Felsch fouled to Holke. He hit on a slow curve ball. Gandil up. Ball one. Gandil fouled to Holke. Weaver up. Ball one. Weaver singled to left center. He drove the second ball on a line past second base. Schalk up. Ball one; ball two. Weaver strike second when Fletcher dropped Rariden's perfect throw. It was an error. Fletcher up. Ball three out. Schalk fled out to Burns. No runs, one hit, one error.

Burns made a nice catch for the last out. Schalk drove the ball hard and

New Schedule Is Announced for the Remaining Games

Owing to the rain yesterday, which caused the postponement of the game in New York, the following new schedule has been announced:

Fourth game—New York tomorrow.

Fifth game—Chicago, Saturday.

Sixth game—New York, Monday.

stopped for it and held it. Rariden's throw to second to catch Weaver was perfect. Sox shortstop was first called out, but Fletcher dropped the ball. New York—Robertson up. Robertson singled to right. Holke up. Holke forced Robertson, E. Collins, unassisted. Robertson was tagged on the base line. Rariden up. Ball one; ball two; strike one, called; ball three. Rariden singled to center. Holke took third. It was a hit-and-run play, well executed. Benton up. Benton flew to Felsch and Holke was held at third. On the throw to the plate, Rariden took second. Burns up. Strike one, called; strike two, called; strike three, called. Burns fanned, swinging. No runs, two hits, no errors. Cicotte got himself out of a bad hole by a baffling curve almost exclusively. The only fast ball Burns got was called a ball. Burns swung hard at the last one, but missed it a foot. It was low and inside. It was his second strikeout of the game.

THIRD INNING

CHICAGO—Cicotte up. Strike one. Cicotte fouled out to Rariden. J. Collins up. Ball one; foul, strike one; ball two; foul, strike two. It was a high foul, which Holke got under but dropped. J. Collins out, Zimmerman to Holke. McMullin up. Foul, strike one; ball one. McMullin fouled out to Rariden. No runs, no hits, one error.

The official scorer gave Holke an error when he dropped J. Collins' foul. But for this Benton would have retired the side on pop outs.

New York—Herzog up. Ball one; strike one, called; strike two, called; ball two; foul. Herzog fanned, swinging hard at the last one. Kauff up. Kauff safe at second when J. Collins muffed his long fly in left. It was the second time

Kauff reached second on an error by J. Collins. Zimmerman up. Zimmerman out, Weaver to Gandil. Kauff going to third. Zimmerman hit the first ball pitched. Fletcher up. Ball one; ball two; foul, strike one; Fletcher out, Collins to Gandil. No runs, no hits, one error.

With two balls called on him, Fletcher tried to score Kauff on a squeeze play. He fouled the ball, however, and this chance for a Giant run was blasted.

FOURTH INNING

CHICAGO—E. Collins up. Strike one, called. E. Collins out, Zimmerman to Holke. Zimmerman made a great one-handed stop and shot the ball to first for a fast putout. Jackson up. Strike one, called; ball one. Jackson out, Fletcher to Gandil. Felsch up. Ball one. Felsch singled to left. Gandil up. Gandil fled to Robertson, who ran to the fence. No runs, one hit, no errors.

New York—Robertson up. Robertson was given an ovation as he came to the plate. Strike one, missed. Robertson tripled to right field. It was a long hit that bounced off the wall. Holke up. Strike one, called. Robertson scored on Holke's double to left. The crowd went wild. Rariden up. Strike one, called. Rariden attempted to bunt, but it rolled foul by a few inches. Rariden out, Cicotte to Gandil, on a sacrifice which put Holke on third. Benton up. Strike one, missed; strike two, called; strike three, called. Benton fanned. Burns up. Strike one, foul; ball one; low; ball two, inside. Umpire threw out a ball on Cicotte, who has been accused of doping the ball. Ball three, low inside. Holke scored on Burns' infield hit. Cicotte up. Strike one, called; strike two, called; strike three, called. Cicotte fanned. No runs, no hits, one error.

Benton was given a great ovation as he walked in to the bench. His pitching is wonderfully steady.

New York—Kauff up. Strike one, called; Kauff out on a fly to Schalk.

Zimmerman up. Zimmerman out on a fly to Felsch. Fletcher up. Ball one, low; outside; strike one, foul; strike two, called; strike three. Fletcher fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

FIFTH INNING

CHICAGO—Weaver up. Strike one, called; strike two, called; ball one, low inside; ball two, wide and low. Weaver out, Fletcher to Holke. Schalk up. Strike one, called; strike two, missed; strike three. Schalk fanned. Rariden dropped the third strike and, threw Schalk out to Holke. Cicotte up. Strike one, called; strike two, called; strike three, called. Cicotte fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Benton was given a great ovation as he walked in to the bench. His pitching is wonderfully steady.

New York—Kauff up. Strike one, called; Kauff out on a fly to Schalk.

Zimmerman up. Zimmerman out on a fly to Felsch. Fletcher up. Ball one, low; outside; strike one, foul; strike two, called; strike three. Fletcher fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

SIXTH INNING

CHICAGO—J. Collins up. Cicotte settled down to steady pitching again despite the bad fourth inning. Ball one, wide. J. Collins out, Fletcher to Holke. McMullin up. Ball one, high; strike one, foul; strike two, foul; ball two, inside. McMullin out, Benton to Holke. E. Collins up. Strike one, foul; ball one, high; strike two, called; ball one, high; foul; ball three. E. Collins out, Holke unassisted. No runs, no hits, no errors.

New York—Robertson up. He received a big hand as he went to bat. Robertson out on a fly to Felsch. Holke up. Strike one, called. Strike two, foul; strike three. Holke fanned. Rariden up. Rariden cut, E. Collins to Gandil. No runs, no hits, no errors.

SEVENTH INNING

CHICAGO—Jackson up. Ball one, outside; strike one, foul; ball one, low; strike two, foul. Jackson out, Herzog to Holke. Felsch up. Ball one, wide; ball two, low; strike one, called; strike two, called; ball three, low inside; strike three. Felsch fanned. Gandil up. Ball one, inside and low. Gandil out, Zimmerman to Holke. No runs, no hits, no errors.

New York—Benton up. Strike one, missed. Strike two, called. Ball one, low; strike three. Benton fanned. Burns up. Ball one, inside; strike one, foul; strike two, called; ball two, wide; foul; ball three, inside. Burns out, Weaver to Gandil. Herzog up. Herzog singled to center. Herzog's single was a Texas Leaguer. Kauff up. Ball one, wide; strike one, foul. Kauff out on a fly to Felsch. No runs, one hit, no errors.

EIGHTH INNING

CHICAGO—Weaver up. Weaver safe at second on a two-bagger to left, which Fletcher almost caught. Schalk up. Weaver out on a fielder's choice to Benton. He was run down between second and third. The putout was by Benton unassisted. Cicotte up. Ball one, low; strike one, called; ball two, outside; strike two, foul; ball three, wide. Schalk out trying to steal, Rariden to Herzog. Cicotte fanned. No runs, one hit, no errors.

New York—Zimmerman up. Strike one, called. Zimmerman lined to E. Collins. Fletcher up. Ball one. Fletcher flew to J. Collins. Robertson up. Robertson singled to center. It was his third

PITCHERS HURL 415 BALLS IN FIRST 2 GAMES

In the two world series games already pitched there has been a total of 415 balls of all descriptions hurled by the seven pitchers who have participated. And there has been an exceedingly small difference between Sox and Giants. Two Chicago hurlers have flung 200 balls of all descriptions, while the five New York pitchers have sent out 215. The difference might have been greater with the New York pitchers forced to work the last half of the ninth in each battle. The performance by teams follows:

Chicago—Balls, 66; strikes, 42; foul strikes, 24; fouls, 7; hits, 15; hit to fielders, 46. Total, 200.

New York—Balls, 67; strikes, 52; foul strikes, 29; fouls, 13; hits, 21; hit to fielders, 33. Total, 215. This makes a grand average of 11½ balls pitched per inning.

BIG MELON TO BE CUT BY PLAYERS

The players are going to keep an eye peeled on the box office receipts for the next two games. They receive 54 percent of the total receipts, or 60 percent after the 19 percent for the National Commission is deducted, for the first four games only. This rule was adopted to do away with any possible talk of the series being jockeyed in order to gather in the dough.

Tides—Steamer Movements—Weather

The Weather

Weather forecast to 5 p. m. Thursday:
Oakland and vicinity. Generally cloudy both tonight and Thursday, moderate westerly winds.
Northern and Southern California:
Fair, except cloudy or foggy near the coast tonight and early Thursday morning, light westerly winds.
Sacramento valley. Fair, light southeasterly winds.
Santa Clara and San Joaquin valleys:
Tonight cloudy or foggy, Thursday fair,
light northwesterly winds.
Nevada: Fair.
Washington: Fair, light northwesterly
winds.
Idaho: Fair.
Oregon: Fair, light northwesterly
winds.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The depression over the upper Mississippi valley yesterday morning has moved southeastward and is now central over the Lakes. It has caused scattered light rain in Minnesota, Iowa and Illinois and rain in the south Atlantic states. On the Pacific slope the weather is cloudy or foggy along the entire coast,
and fair and pleasant in the interior.
Fair weather also prevails over the Rocky mountain region, plains and Gulf states. It is warmer in the British possessions and southern plains states and colder in the northwestern plains states.
Conditions are favorable for fair weather in this district tonight and Thursday, except cloudy or foggy near the coast.

DOCK AND DECK

Steamer Unimak which will arrive
home from Alaska on Sunday, will bring the news of the death of James Cunningham, who left Oakland on that vessel last April, for Manila. Cunningham was in charge of the laborers about the cannery when the small fire started among the Filipinos. He tried to suppress them and was stabbed in the back.

Six of the boilers, which have been taken from the stranded steamer Bear,
have been sent to a Chinese firm and will be sent to this port, where they will be shipped to China and will be placed into a new hull now building
there.

A four-masted schooner was reported at 6 a. m. October 9, by a passing steamer. She was 3 miles west, northwest, of Point Reyes, and standing off shore.

The Norwegian steamer Nio, Nelson, which put ashore at Point Wilson on Frustrated during a thick fog a few days ago, while on her way to Seattle
from the Orient, has finished unloading
her cargo of merchandise and is now stored in No. 1 hold, was badly damaged by salt water and nine of her plates will have to be replaced.

STEAMER CAPTAIN:
TOWED TO PORT.
Steamer schooner Wasp of the Lindman Steamship Co. has been towed into Pensacola, bottom up. She will be righted in shape by the marine underwriters who have charge of the work. The Wasp met with a hurricane off the Florida coast and turned turtle
a few days ago.

The Puget Sound codfishing fleet,
which has arrived home from the Alaska, have all been inspected by
the marine underwriters and passed upon.
They have been chartered by Alexander Woodside of Alameda and are coming to this port to load merchandise.

Schooner Samar arrived at Kahului,
Hawaii Islands yesterday from Antio-chia with a cargo of nitrate.

Bids for 6000 springs have been ordered by the United States government.
These are to be used on the steamers
Great Northern and the Northern Pacific, taken over by the government and now at Bremerton, Washington, being converted into transports.

LIGHT AND SIGNAL
WORK LONG PERIOD.
Owing to the heavy fog on the Oregon coast, the Cape Arago lighthouse has broken all previous records of one continuous signal for fog. The signal has been blowing for the past 24 hours and still there is no sign of clearing up.

Several halibut fishing schooners have arrived in Seattle, all having large catches.

Change of masters registered in the United States custom house: Captain C.
M. Hardwick, steamer Viverton, Captain
C. C. Graham, Standard Oil barge No.
82; Captain W. H. Batchelder, schooner Acapulco.

ASK BAY BRIDGE

In anticipation of the future development of Bay Farm Island by industrial interests, the board of supervisors has held a public hearing and has recommended that the bridge be moved for some time past, the Fitchburg Improvement Club will go before the board of supervisors next Monday and ask that consideration be given to a scheme to bridge the upper end of San Leandro bay to directly connect the annexed district with the island. Harry L. Boyle, school director, who is an active member of the club, will present the matter to the board.

HERE THEY ARE!

THE Cat and the Fiddle, The Old Woman who Lived in a Shoe,
Humpty Dumpty, Jack and Jill,
Little Bo Peep, Tom-Tom the Piper's
Son, Jack be Nimble, and dozens of others given away free to the chilren with Washington Crisps, New Process Corn Flakes.

Children all over the country today are playing this popular Mother Goose game
with the beautiful colored cut-outs.
Start your children today and they will be delighted with the toys and even more so with these New Process Corn Flakes, for they really are delicious and have always been the favorite with both
children and grown-ups.

Children Cry For

Extracts from Letters by Grateful
Parents to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Mrs. Wm. Palmer, Sterling, Ill., says: "Your Castoria has been my friend for twenty years. I could not keep my children well without it. I cannot speak too highly of your wonderful remedy." Mrs. Frank H. Cafferty, of Providence, R. I., says: "If all young mothers would use Castoria it will bring up their child. My nurse and doctor can also tell what your Castoria can do." Howard A. Banks, of Hickory, N. C., says: "Your Castoria is the only physic we ever give our three babies. The fact that we use it promptly is probably the reason we never have to use any other." Mrs. A. J. Nelson, of Waco, Texas, says: "Enclosed you will find a picture of 'Our little Castoria boy.' When a week old I ordered your Castoria for him, and I have never been up a night with him since."
Mrs. Eva Ott Melin, of Jersey City, N. J., says: "I attribute the present excellent condition of my baby to your Castoria which he has been using since he was three weeks old. I have not lost a night's sleep in seven months."

RAISED TAX ON LIQUORS CAUSES WOE

Patriots Thirst Deeply, and Must Needs Pay an Extra Jitney on Cup That Cheers!

Taxation on Cooling Brew or "Eagle's Milk" Works Big Change in Things as They Are

There are a lot of patriots in Oakland who are thoroughly imbued with the spirit that inspired the men who dumped a ton of beer into Boston Harbor some generations ago because they refused to suffer taxation without representation.

Up to about now these later day patriots have figured that they could best show their willingness to aid in the support of the country by swelling the Internal Revenue receipts; also, this method assured representation when they paid their tax.

However, just before now, the alarm tocsin caused much perturbation among the patriots, for the word went forth that the method of their devotion to country was to be tested by an increase in taxation—and these patriots, or many of them, could not figure out how they could increase their representation. Some of the reasons for this inability were financial and some based on capacity.

It is a fact that there has many angles and is the cause of many disappointments among various classes and alignments of patriots.

VENDORS HIT.

For instance there is the man who has made a good living acting as a vendor and therefore creating the opportunity for the patriots to obtain representation along with their taxation. Many of this branch of the service, reading more widely than well of the purport of the new war tax bill, figured that if they bought a lot of liquid commodity they would escape the war tax, provided the goods be in their possession before the tax went into effect.

Alas for such expectations; these men have more of the commodity than they wish and they are facing the necessity of digging up $2.20 a gallon on all spirits of the whisky variety. This in the way of extra tax.

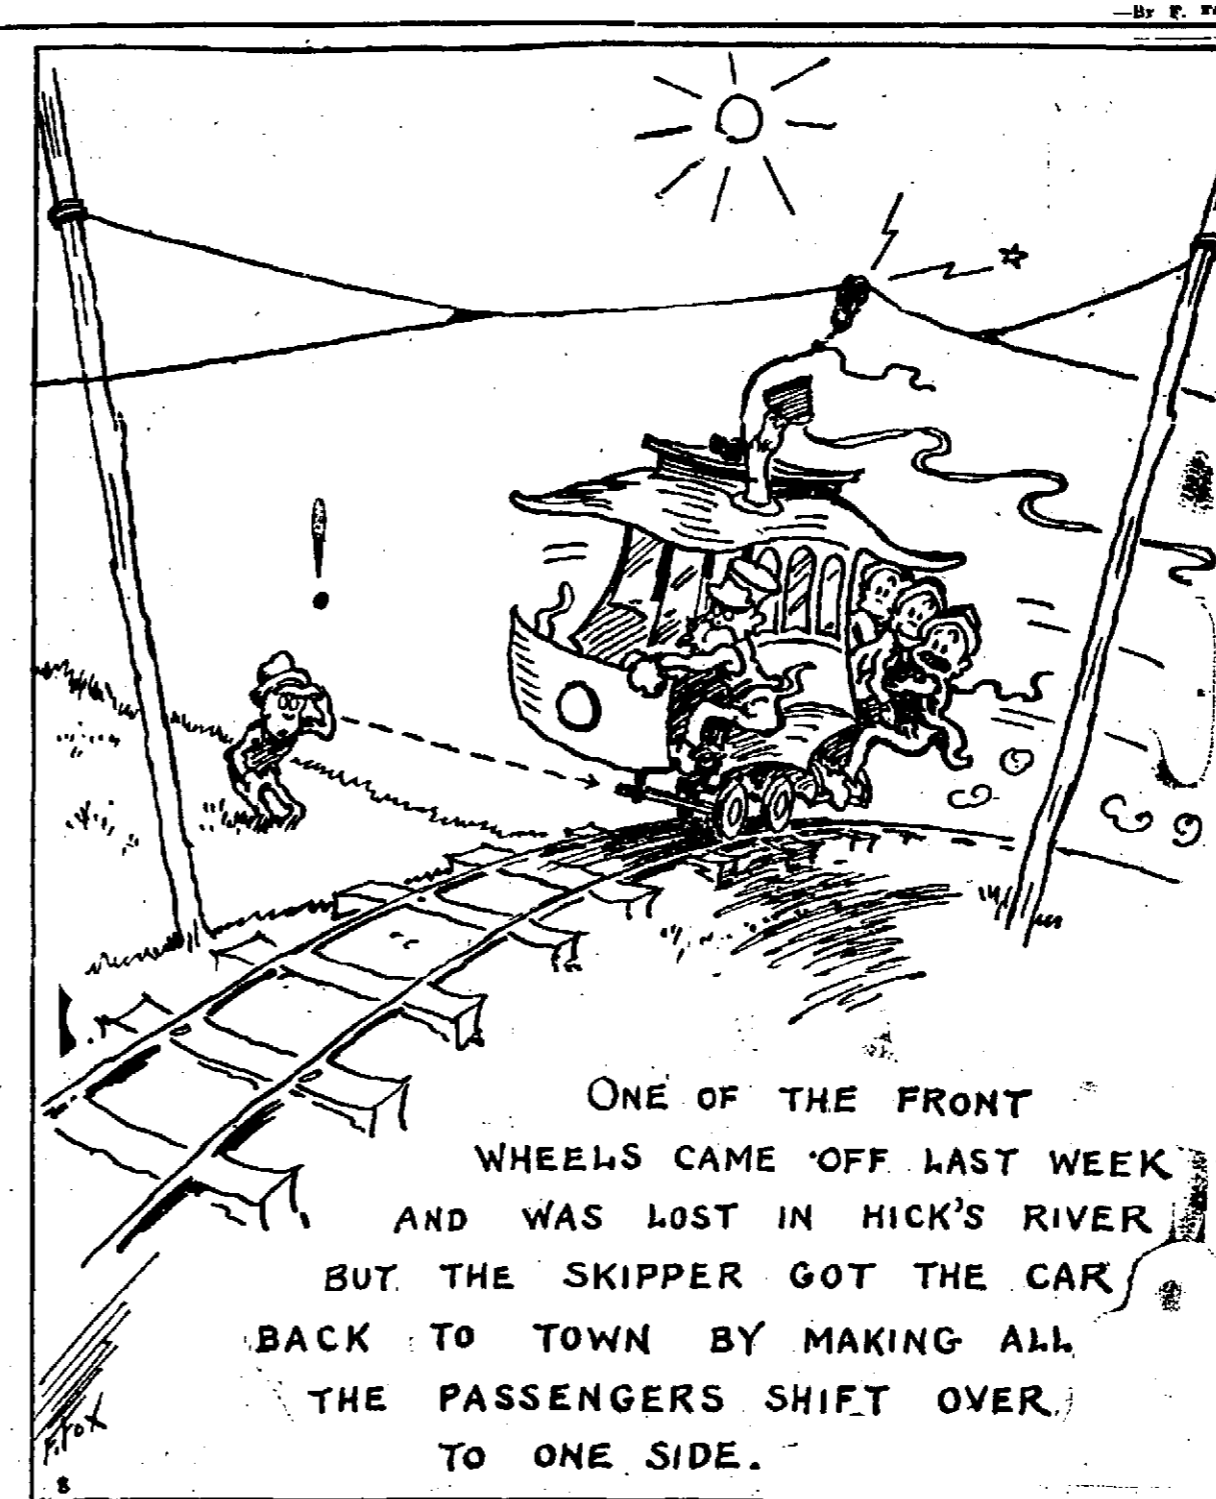

Further, the extra tax and the extra price consequent upon the prohibition necessary to raise prices to the consumer, and thus again creating the cause of woe among the patriots, consumers and vendors alike; the reason for this dual woe is axiomatic; besides there is a limit to one's patriotism (size of roll).

PRICES GO UP.

It is a hard strain on one's patriotism when one finds one's favorite tipple has advanced 50 per cent over night, and in general there is less enthusiasm and less representation than formerly.

The tax collectors are busy and many oases are being reduced to the desert. There will be many more families signing missing when the license permitting present operation expires, for the world's supply of ardent liquor is limited and there are many wholesalers in the bay district whose supply will not last more than a few months, and who cannot get any more.

SAY LOTTERY CHARGE IS CAMOUFLAGE

Gambling Issue Is Raised to Befog Recall, Assertion of Police Department Officials

Bluecoats to Be Made Football in Merry Game of Politics Is Prophecy Freely Made

That the police department is once more to be made to enact the role of football in the game of municipal politics is the prophecy of those who are watching closely the weaving threads of plot and counterplot in the city hall. The armed truce which has been in force for several months between Commissioner F. F. Jackson, head of the Department of Public Health and Safety, and Mayor John L. Davis is in danger of spontaneous combustion because of the heated atmosphere induced by the recall movement.

As is usual when the police department is under the charges center around the alleged activity of the Chinese lotteries. In this connection friends of Commissioner Jackson point to the fact that a number of raids have been made since Chief Nedderman has been in office and that police court convictions have been obtained.

Dr. Jackson has been accused by the mayor of being one of the prime movers behind the recall which is now assuming a really threatening aspect as seen from the chief executive's office. As head of the department of public safety, he is responsible for the police department, and its responsibility places him ever in a vulnerable position.

It is so easy to unload sins of all kinds upon the police, say Dr. Jackson's friends, and to insinuate that this, that or the other condition is due to the laxity of police officials.

Dr. Jackson and his supporters anticipate another onslaught against the police department similar to the one made early this year when the city was in a turmoil over the grand jury investigations of conditions within the department. Mayor Davis and the anti-recall forces, it is suspected, will employ political camouflage to disguise the actual situation and throw public attention upon the ever-convenient police.

In support of this opinion Dr. Jackson's friends point to the hints that are being thrown out to the effect that there has been an "understanding" between the officials of the department and the gambling interests whereby gambling is to be condoned secretly while publicly an effort is being made to suppress all forms of games of chance.

For his part Chief Nedderman is reticent. His only comment over the matter is that the activities of the police department and the records of the police courts during the last few weeks, plainly indicate how things stand.

"We have been endeavoring to stamp out the vicious form of gambling as fast as we can obtain evidence," said Chief Nedderman. "As to the Chinese lotteries there have been two convictions by juries carrying fines and jail sentences and a plea of guilty in consequence, during the last ten days. The evidence was gathered by officers of the department and not by 'stool-pigeons.' As fast as we are fortified to proceed we will do so without fear or favor."

TRAINING CAMPS TO BE STARTED

A third set of training camps for army officers is to be established by the War Department, one located in each cantonment, and December 1 has been set as the limit beyond which applications for admission will not be received. Only second lieutenants will be recommended from these new camps, which will differ somewhat from the sixteen reserve officers' training camps and the eight U. S. T. C. now in existence.

The third set of camps will open on December 5, and in addition to the sixteen in the United States there will be one each in Panama, Hawaiian Islands and the Philippines. These camps will be in the name of the training cantonments. They are designed to afford exceptional opportunities for the advancement of the best men in the national army, the regular army and the National Guard.

Twenty-five hundred students between 21 and 31 years of age will be admitted from such universities, colleges and schools as have had recognized military training during the last ten years. Each student must be examined at his own expense by a reputable physician, and even then he may be rejected by the army physicians.

These college students will be required to enlist for the duration of the war. If they are not recommended for a second lieutenancy, they will be required to serve out their term of enlistment in some branch of the service. In other words, applicants for positions will not be allowed to resign and go home, as many have done from the reserve officers' training camps.

The government will not pay $100 a month to the men in these camps; they will receive the pay of privates in the army—$30 a month with food, clothing and quarters.

HALTS WEDDING

Miss Pauline Higuera, a young San Francisco dancing instructor, will not become the bride of Chester D. Lynch if the would-be groom's mother can prevent it, despite the fact that the couple obtained a marriage license today and repaired to the home of Mrs. J. A. Lohr at 3215 Dakota, street to be wed. The couple were intercepted by the police upon advices from the San Francisco authorities and have been sent back across the bay for parental supervision.
